Garnet Education's new range of graded ELT readers are adaptations of classic stories

Garnet Education is delighted to announce the publication of Garnet Oracle Classics, a new series of ELT readers retelling classic stories. The first three titles are Much Ado About Nothing (presented as a play script), Robinson Crusoe and Wuthering Heights. The books use the same grading system as the original Garnet Oracle Readers and make classic stories accessible to Intermediate learners of English. The books have been adapted by the Series Editor, Peter Viney.

About the Series Editor

Peter Viney has over 40 years' ELT experience, and now combines his writing with lecturing and teacher training commitments internationally. He is the author/co-author of many successful textbook series and a wide range of highly popular video courses. Peter has been series editor and author on a number of graded reader series.
